Auction Sale

—OF— Personal Property

I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on

THURSDAY, June 16, 1910,
at one o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises where I now live, known as the Hayward farm, on the west side of Berlin pond, six miles from Montpelier and seven miles from Barre City, the following articles of personal property, to wit:

Eight Fancy Cows

and when we say fancy, we mean it. Part of these are high-grade Jerseys that originated from the Brownson stock farm at Poultney, Vt., and a part of them grade Holsteins, all giving milk and some of them fresh. These cows are large and good age, giving a lot of milk with a high fat. You would travel a good many miles before you find a better lot.

Also, 2 heifer calves, 1 Ohio improved white Chester breed, 6 pigs (seven weeks old). 8 swine of lively hams. 1 oak stove, quantity of salt pork and a lot of household furniture.

Do not miss this sale if you are looking for high-grade cows and pigs. Remember the date, June 16, 1910, at 1 o'clock p. m. Terms at sale.
